

Your Love

Rayland Baxter

Oh my Lord, won't you take me to Israel
Where the desert she calls my name
As for me there's nobody else
And the raging sun
Is too bright for most everyone
In the land of the Chosen Ones,
I have found my new home again
(Whistling)
And among the crowd
Holy brothers they shout tonight
How the crusade it pulls you down
'Til You have nothing more
And all your bravery
Set in stone so that we can see
How the devil makes a mockery
Of your love, my Lord
Oh my Lord
So it's an eye for an eye
Quite the lesson in true disguise
Make a friend sing a lullaby
For the end of the days
And in the rising sun
You realize You're the shining one
Who never ever needed anyone
To show just how it is
Oh my Lord
Oh my Lord
