

Origami

Scott Helman

Sometime your skin feels like it's only paper thin,
And you don't understand the world you're living in,
 Oh if you want to you can come to me,
I'll give you structure, give you company.Yeah now we got the foundations, come on lay it on my body,
 And we got no limitations,
 Shapes we're making with our bodies,
With our bodies, oh yeh.I'll fold into you, I'm watching you fold into me.
 You know you're all I want to do,
 We're making origami, origami.
 And when you speak the words,
 Like birds they fall off your tongue,
 But love is fragile it can always come undone,
 So I will be here for you everyday,
Cos there was nothing right before you came.Yeah now we got the foundations, come on lay it on my body,
 And we got no limitations,
 Shapes we're making with our bodies,
With our bodies, oh yeh.I'll fold into you, I'm watching you fold into me.
 You know you're all I want to do,
We're making origami, origami.She crossed her legs then uncrossed her legs,
 And looked at me and said,
 "If you think it's getting heavy, let's rearrange",
 And now we're lying on our backs in different shapes,
 In different shapes,
 I'll fold into you, I'm watching you fold into me.
 You know you're all I want to do,
We're making origami, origami.I'll fold into you, I'm watching you fold into me.
 You know you're all I want to do,
 We're making origami, origami.
