

New Night

Katatonía

Touch
I'm forgotten this time
I am so uncertain
That my heart will go onMy loving one
If you are here you'll find
That I'm not feeling well
That I will have to go onThough summer and wine smell
I have no reason to follow
I have only you
My sun is fading
My heart's soulWhy, so quiet this new night
There's a white cloud under my eyelid
Come my loving one
There is swirling dark drowning my freedomCalm is the undertow
Hold my hand
I'm in the waiting line
You and I stand buried in the groundThough summer and wine smell
I have no reason to follow
I have only you
My sun is fading
My heart's soul
