Fire In Paradise

Bloodflowerz

you're like angels, so beautiful, it makes me cry all my dreams of you rain down from the weeping skylike roses you flourish in my heart and hurt with your thorn flowers die in the cold, turn to gold, to be rebornyou're deeper than all oceans your sighing sounds so sweet, even when you sleep silently beats my heart with addictive smartfire in paradise mirrors in my eyes roses of red flower in my head roses smell so sweet till they start to weepyou're passion, you take me high and make me cry you're protagonist in all love poemsyou're sin, chill on my skin my heartbeat is your voice, i have no choice when your arrow hits my heart the roses start to burn
