Fool's Gold

I try not to fall on myself
I try not to worry about it
They tell me not to waste a breath
To hide it away like a broken boneYes, that's the way to build a proper fence
Yes, that's the way to shine a blunted edgeIs there even a clear way out? (action! action!)
Its no use, I'm not ready now (action! action!)
Is there even a clear way out? (action! action!)
Its no use, I'm not ready now (action! action!)I try not to picture ourselves
But I feel insane in your mist
If there's trouble deep in my head
Then is love the only overcoat?Yes, that's the way to build a proper fence
Yes, that's the way to shine a blunted edgeIs there even a clear way out (action! action!)
Its no use, I'm not ready now (action! action!)
Is there even a clear way out? (action! action!)
Its no use, I'm not ready now (action! action!)
