I'm alive.

Brian Littrell

I lived a lot of life
I caught a dream or two
It's been a sweet rideBut I've faced my share of nights
Searched like we all do
Looking insideNow I'm standing here
'Cause You've made it clearThis heart inside me beats because
You loved enough to take my cross
I'm aliveYou gave Your life to shatter death
So even after my last breath
I'm aliveI'm finally wide awake
I'm finished being know
It's a new dayI feel it on my face
In hope's a midnight sun
That won't fadeI'm bowing down
And I'm crying outThis heart inside me beats because
You loved enough to take my cross
I'm aliveYou gave Your life to shatter death
So even after my last breath
I'm aliveForever, forevermore
Forever, Lord
