

I'm alive.

Brian Littrell

I lived a lot of life
I caught a dream or two
It's been a sweet ride But I've faced my share of nights
Searched like we all do
Looking inside Now I'm standing here
'Cause You've made it clear This heart inside me beats because
You loved enough to take my cross
I'm alive You gave Your life to shatter death
So even after my last breath
I'm alive I'm finally wide awake
I'm finished being know
It's a new day I feel it on my face
In hope's a midnight sun
That won't fade I'm bowing down
And I'm crying out This heart inside me beats because
You loved enough to take my cross
I'm alive You gave Your life to shatter death
So even after my last breath
I'm alive Forever, forevermore
Forever, Lord
