

Tonight

Miles Kane

You're guilty, it's proven
It's written all over your face
My instincts are burning,
Are gauging up beyond the pace
You're childish, you're frightened
You're freezing right down to the bone
I'm bloodshot, I'm ready to come
And give you what I owe

Tonight, I want to forget forever
Tonight, so let's come together
Tonight, I want to forget forever
Tonight

Embellished in the story,
It's growing bigger by the hour
It's a tough one
It's a rough one
The excitement of the chase
I'll meet you on the corner
In the cold midnight hour
So stand up, line up
Stand up for your shot in the dark

I've noticed things changing
Is it too late for us now baby?
I've noticed things changing
Is it too late for us now honey?
Is it too late?
It's never too late
