You Should Be Happy

Steve Perry

Voices in the dead of night
Whisper words of loneliness it's true
Footsteps echo down the hall
Comin' ever closer to you
It's not fair for mortal man
To put up with this pain, I'm goin' throughYou should be
Happy
Now you're on your own
You should be
Happy
Now you're on your ownIf I could walk through that door
I'd leave behind these broken memories
Trapped inside this empty room
Desperation's closing in on me
If I had your heart of stone
I could break these chains and I'd be freeYou should be
Happy
Now you're on your own
You should be
Happy
Now you're on your ownI could be happy
I could be happy, someday
If you would have tried
If you hadn't lied
We'd never be alone again, yeah andHappy
Now you're on your own
Happy
Yes, you're on your ownYou should be
Happy
Now you're on your own
Happy
Oh yes, you're on your own
But, now I'm
Happy
Now I'm on my own
Happy
