The Ghost Inside

Failure Anthem

You're never gonna kill me
It's been a long three years
Filled with pain and full of tears
You forgot what it's like
To fall asleep at night
It's a funny thing
Regret can make us feel insane
But at the end day
At least you feel something
Everybody knows
How the story goes
But what's it like when it's crashing down?
Everybody knows, everybody knows
You're never gonna kill me
I'm in here for good
Remember why you made me?
I don't care, but you should.
You're never gonna kill me
I've heard it all before
You can try and try
Keep asking why
I'm the ghost inside your mind
I feel the cold in here
Filled with shame and full of fear
You want a brand new life
So you can fall asleep at night
Everybody knows
How the story goes
But what's it like when it's crashing down?
Everybody knows, everybody knows
You're never gonna kill me
I'm in here for good
Remember why you made me?
I don't care, but you should.
You're never gonna kill me
I've heard it all before
You can try and try
Keep asking why
I'm the ghost inside

Save me from myself
No I don't wanna leave
Save me from this hell
'Cause I will never leave
I'm with you in your dreams
Watching patiently
It's safe to say you lost your way
Everybody knows
How the story goes
But what's it like when it's crashing down?
Everybody knows, everybody knows
You're never gonna kill me
I'm in here for good
Remember why you made me?
I don't care but you should
You're never gonna kill me
I've heard it all before
You can try and try
Keep asking why
I'm the ghost inside your mind
I'm the ghost inside your Mind
