

In Your Words

Lamb of God

A sacred cash cow with sickly tits
Dripping temptation for hypocrites
Tone deftly beaten, the prosperous
Endlessly stating the obvious
Caught in your words, sever the cord this time
Somebody's told me this will
Face me once as I leave all that I despise
Face me as I unleash this hate refined
Indict the blameless, transparent designs
Pathetic and shameless, crucified
A legend in his own mind, enthroned by lies
A deep blackened valley floods its demise
Caught in your words, sever the cord this time
Somebody's told me this will
Face me once as I leave all that I despise
Face me as I unleash this hate refined
Face me as I leave this all far behind
Face me as I unleash this hate refined
One bloodstained life now infested with plague
A lamb lies with maggots blinded and betrayed
One bloodstained life now infested with plague
The lamb lies with maggots, the cold floated with rage
Face these eyes, hate refined
