Snuff 2- The Resurrection

Emmure

Pay attention to what I'm about to say.
This is a true confession.
Mother, I killed someone today.
I know I shouldn't throw it all down the drain.

But she fucking deserved it.
For everything she did to me.

Getting away with murder is probably the hardest thing to do.
I hope I get a good lawyer or else I'm calling my brother.
Screaming "where are you?!"
What the fuck was I thinking?
I should have known I couldn't get away with this.
It was over dumb shit.

And they already had my finger prints.
That's how they know.
It was me.
I took her life away but she fucking deserved it.

I don't regret a thing.

Pay attention to what I'm about to say.
This is a true confession.
Mother, I killed someone today.
I took her life away.

I don't regret a thing.
She fucking deserved it
