Giving

Schuster

Givin' me cause, so I may earn
Givin' me words, so I may learn
And I want more I want more
Givin' me thoughts that I may keep
Givin' me dreams, so I may sleep
And I want more, I want more
Still all I need is love, so give me moreGivin' me calm to fall into Givin' me hope to guide me through
And I want more I want more
Givin' me light to see through tears
Givin' me strength to crush my fears
And I want more, I want more
Still all I need is love, so give me moreAnd I won't break you down
And I won't bring you down anymore
And I won't break you down
And I won't bring you down anymoreGivin' me choice, so I may seek Givin' me faith, so I'll believe
And I want more I want more
Givin' me breath of your mercy
Givin' yourself to comfort me
And I want more, I want more
Still all I need is love, so give me more
