Alice Wishlist

Stavesacre

a single shining tear somehow finds a way out from behind a wall of stubborn will from behind another cigarette pretending its ended
long enough to start it again (pre-chorus)
you keep telling me what you feel when i ask you what is real youre running
youre running from the truth alice wishlist...so who you saving now?
wheres your white horse?
or does it only ride for you in wonderland?
far away from here and
the heartbreaks,
the mistakes...
baby, youre the one that needs the saving.
(pre-chorus)
(chorus)
alice... oh, alice
how much longer are you gonna hide your heart?you keep telling me what you feel
when i ask you what is real.
youre runnin,
youre runnin from the truth cmon and sing your sad songs, baby cry your eyes out now - whatever it takes to get your heart to a place where its not just gonna break again. alice wishlist... does your wonderland exist?
how much longer are you gonna hide your heart?
alice... oh, alice
how much longer are you gonna hide your heart?
