It All Comes Down To You

Peter Frampton

When you talk in the wind
And nobody hears
Makes you feel like hiding
Where no one sees the tears
All alone I told you
That you can trust in me
All we need is what we have
Just wait and you will see
I've been holding on to shattered dreams
And I've been living life to extremes
But when I thought I couldn't carry on anymore
It all comes down to you
When you're caught in the rain
And nobody cares
Makes you feel like running
But nothing compares
To all the things I wanna do
With you by my side
If I had a thousand years
Would I be satisfied?
I've been holding on to shattered dreams
And I've been living life to extremes
But when I thought I couldn't carry on anymore
It all comes down to you
All alone I told you
That you can trust in me
All we need is what we have
Just wait and you will see
I've been holding on to shattered dreams
And I've been living life to extreme
But when I thought I couldn't carry on anymore
It all comes down to you
I've been holding on to shattered dreams
And I've been living life to extremes
But when I knew I couldn't carry on anymore
It all comes down to you
Oh, baby, it all comes down to you
