Imagination

Swim Deep

Imagination can't know how to lie but I can
I believe in anything that's great
That's my lie, yes I can
I went away for just a day
Walked a million miles in the wildest way
Can't leave this planet not today
Messed it up and go do the sameYes I can, stop and it's over, lies
Yes I ran, from getting older, so wise
'Cause everybody's holding back
It's not what you wanted huh?
Everybody told you that
Everybody's holding back
It's not what you wanted huh?Imagination can't know how to lie but I can
I believe in anything that's great
That's my lie, yes I can
I went away for just a day
Walked a million miles in the wildest way
Can't leave this planet not today
Messed it up and go do the sameI'm not a man, I'm a word, and I'm not stronger
It's not fate, equality moulds into love
Everybody told me that
So what could be different?
But I'm not a soldier man
Everybody's leaving Earth
It's not what we wanted huh?Imagination can't know how to lie but I can
I believe in anything that's great
That's my lie, yes I can
I went away for just a day
Walked a million miles in the wildest way
Can't leave this planet not today
Messed it up and go do the sameSwim deep, and keep your lovely eyes running free
Swim deep, and keep your lovely eyes running free
Swim deep, and keep your lovely eyes running free
Swim deep, and keep your lovely eyes running free
