

Strawberry Hill

Bronze Radio Return

Get your thrills on Strawberry Hill
And all your wounds the berries will fill
It'll make your pain taste sweeter
It's when the time stands still, it'll lean on your will Let the juices soak the memories to kill
And we'll drink it by the liter
Nobody smiles, but we laugh so hard
Nobody cries or hides their scars
We just fall so far[Chorus:]
It's alright, it's okay
I don't think I'm coming down
It's alright, it's okay
I'll eat this fruit from the ground
It's alright, it's okay
And you'll see what I have found
On Strawberry Hill, on Strawberry Hill
Nothing matters...Fill your glass, rest your feet
Empty cheers, celebrate defeat
It's a party and it's on repeat
But no one's here of their own free will
Something chased them up this hill
And we won't come down 'til we forget what's below
Nobody smiles, but we laugh so hard
Nobody cries or hides their scars
We just fall so far[Chorus:]
It's alright, it's okay
I don't think I'm coming down
It's alright, it's okay
I'll eat this fruit from the ground
It's alright, it's okay
And you'll see what I have found
Nothing matters...
