Smooth

Princess Superstar

You know we were eatin' dinner at the Red Lobster the other night and as I looked across the table and into your eyes

I thought to myself, damn you're smooth so fine...

A smooth-assed baby up and asked me for a date wear a fancy dress and yo don't be late he said I'll pick you up baby in my black Mercedes he was so damn fly I knew he pulled all the ladies It was a classy place yeah it was the Red Lobster eatin' some shrimp then he told me he's a mobster took of the pinkie ring and he put it in my hand sayin' now you are my lady, I'm your man You were wearin' one of those fine Italian suits and in your lapel you had a handkerchief and I noticed that it was embroidered and I really like that I was kinda scared but a little excited pulled out the AK and I wanted to ride it finished our corn, went out to do a job this fine smooth man got me working for the mob We started plannin' a jewelry heist and I'm thinking to myself that this man is nice diamonds and fur yeah he's got all the moves well he may be bad but he sure is smooth!
