Emergency

I Am The Avalanche

it was one of those nights, when you make twenty phone calls just to stay aliveand you would talk to anyone, anyone who would possibly shed some lightso i go to the hospital to look in to life support but they don't see a thing and hurrying me out the dooremergency, such a tragedy my throat is cut and i'm badly bleeding
my throat is cut and i'm badly bleeding
emergency, such a tragedy my lungs are crushed i'm barely breathing, my lungs are crushed i'm barely breathingand since we're both awake lets sit up and talk about the last 3 yearsshe said i guess lets drink this bottle like its medicine to our head and fall asleep we'll have headaches in the morning oh I hope i don't overdoes on empty promises and beautiful pictures of the one i should've had i couldn't possibly deal with thatemergency, such a tragedy
my throat is cut and i'm badly bleeding
my throat is cut and i'm badly bleeding
emergency, such a tragedy
my lungs are crushed i'm barely breathing,
give me something,
yeah give me anything,
just to get me through the night
somebody help meemergency, such a tragedy
my throat is cut and i'm badly bleeding
my throat is cut and i'm badly bleeding
emergency, such a tragedy
my lungs are crushed i'm barely breathing, my lungs are crushed i'm barely breathingsomebody help me, cause this is an emergency
