Bundle Up

Arrah and the Ferns

It?s better to be warm, than unprepared
And caught outside, and caught outside,
With not enough fun, it?s too cold to bear,
I?ve got to go in, we?ve got to go in
We?ve got to bundle up tomorrow,
Coz winter comes so hard.
We?ve got to bundle up tomorrow,
It?s only hours til it?s here.
She had a cold heart, and a new scarf around her neck,
Outside the church in the snow falls,
Her hair was either side and her mouth is open wide,

Catching every snowflake as they?re falling,
So baby, baby tonight could be that night,
Let me see that smile, let me see that mark,
From the tree you slid into, but still made you smile,
It still made you laugh, oh what a day, oh what a day,
To be remembered, to be remembered by you and I,
Oh what a day, oh what a day,
To be remembered by you and I
We?ve got to bundle up tomorrow,
Coz winter comes so hard.
We?ve got to bundle up tomorrow,
It?s only hours til the snow is falling down.
