Quiet One

Itâ€™s time to leave you once again,
Get back in my car,
Turn the engine on,
And wait for a while to see if your face reappears,
Around your door,
But I bore you so much so,
That your front door locks,
And your curtains they shut,
And you life carries on in the warmthâ€¦

And mines just,

Rub me out of my life,
Erase the lines that drew me in this tide,
Delete me out of your world,
Show no remorse when you press those two keys,
Control Delete
Control Delete

And I,
Am solitude,
A life without you is barely worth living,
Itâ€™s true,
I feel so alone Iâ€™m so far from home,
And all that I want is to feel,
Your heart.
To beat next to mine,

But your your front door locks,
And your curtains they shut,
And you life carries on in the warmthâ€¦

And mines just,

Rub me out of my life,
Erase the lines that drew me in this tide,
Delete me out of your world,
Show no remorse when you press those two keys,
Control Delete

Control Delete

Around, around, I hear your words,
Around, around, I hear your words,
Around, around, I hear your words,
Againâ€¦
Around, around, I hear your words,
Around, around, I hear your words,
Around, around, I hear your words,
Againâ€¦

Rub me out of my life,
Erase the lines that drew me in this tide,
Delete me out of your world,
Show no remorse when you press those two keys,
Control Delete...
Control Delete...
Control Delete...
Control Delete...
