

Under These Hands

Dum Dum Girls

Under these hands
Hide strings of light
I pull them to me
To make me feel alright
A bit of your hair
To cut through the night
A slip of the tongue

To set things uprightUnder these hands, I hold my heart
Under these hands, under these hands, waiting a new startCast off the clothes

I wore to death

They strangle my thoughts
They steal my breath
Enough of this place
It's long dead too
I wanna deface

Everything in viewUnder these hands, I hold my heart

Under these hands, under these hands, waiting a new startIn view

In viewUnder these hands, I hold my heart
Under these hands, under these hands, waiting a new start
Under these hands, under these hands I hold my heart
Under these hands, under these hands, waiting a new start
