

She Can Have You

Tamar Braxton

Ain't nothing like being alone at Christmas
Everybody's got a man but me
Again missin' you
Well it would be nice for once in my life
To get this love right this time of year right
But I'm still alone I'll be alone but you won't find a better woman
And to tell the truth
She can have you
(She can have you, She can have you)
'Cause I put up with enough
(She can have you) I saw you at the mall with your new girlfriend
With a bag of gifts that should be mine
'Cause she ain't put in the time,
Caught you in a bunch of lies
Tried and I tried and I sacrificed
Now here you are
Actin' like you so in love
But we broke up two weeks ago
'Cause you wanna find yourself
But you're here with her
So now I'm all alone I'll be alone but you won't find a better woman
She can have you
(She can have you, She can have you)
'Cause I put up with enough
(She can have you) Now we've been back and forth for a whole year now
And you say that by Christmas we can work it out
'Cause who wants to be alone?
Who wants to play alone?
For someone who do you wrong
'Cause I am worth it! I'll be alone but you won't find a better woman
She can have you
(She can have you, She can have you)
'Cause I put up with enough
She can have you I don't care if it's Christmas
Halloween, New Year's Eve
It's still palm Sunday,
President's day, any ol' holiday
I don't care if I'm here alone She can have you
