

Locked Up

Ingrid Michaelson

I have taken a wrong turn?
When will I learn?
When will I learn?
Should I show them all my scars?
Cherry red bleeding burn

Like an angry apple tree
I throw my apples if you get too close to me
But if I look to my right
Will I see the one I fight for?
If I look to my right
Or if I turn to my left
Will I see that I have kept my heart locked up,
locked up so tight?

Love, love, love, love is everywhere
But not a drop for me to drink
Tie me up and bind my feet
Drop me in and watch me sink

Like an angry apple tree
I throw my apples if you get too close to me
But if I look to my right
Will I see the one I fight for?
If I look to my right
Or if I turn to my left
Will I see that I have kept my heart locked up,
locked up?

If I was 17 I could find it in between
The cushions of somebody's couch
I could find it, I could find it
If I was 17 I could find it in a dream
A dime a dozen the kind of love
I could find it, I could find it

But I'm not 17
And I lost it in between the birthday cakes
And fast mistakes that rolled by

But if I look to my right
Will I see the one I fight for?
If I look to my right
Or if I turn to my left
Will I see that I've kept my heart locked up locked up so tight?
