Better for You

JLS

What will it take, when will you see
The tears that you're hiding, show underneath
It's easy to tell, I know you well
You're not fooling me'Cause the moment that you're feeling up
He brings you down
And everybody knows you're not
So happy nowBut you're beautiful
I'd show you if you'd let meCan't you see I'm
Much better for you
Much better for you
Much better for youI don't wanna see you
Heading for a heartbreak
I can't turn away
You're the one I wanna save'Cause I'm better for you, you, you
Better for you, you, you
Better for you, you, you
Better for you, you, you
Better for youWhat would it take, why can't we be?
If you're gonna gamble, bet it on me
How does it sound, won't let you down
You know you got me, got me, try meYou know that every time you build it up
He tears it down
Don't you think you've had enough
Already now'Cause you're priceless
I'd show you if you'd let meCan't you see I'm
Much better for you
Much better for you
Much better for youI don't wanna see you
Heading for a heart-break
I can't turn away
You're the one I wanna save'Cause I'm better for you, you, you
Better for you, you, you
Better for you, you, you
Better for you, you, you
Better for youThere's so much inside, you just don't see I'll show you, I'll show you how good you are
I could take you where you need to be
With meMuch better for you
Much better for you

Much better for youI don't wanna see you
Heading for a heart-break
I can't turn away
You're the one I wanna save'Cause I'm better for you, you, you
I'm better for you, you, you
Better for you, you, you
Better for you, you, youBetter for you, you, you
(Much better, I'm much better)
Better for you, you, you
(Much better, I'm much better)
Better for you, you, you
Better for you, you, you
Better for youYou're beautiful
I'd show you if you'd let me
