Welcome to Reality

Pop Evil

I'm addicted to the ashes and water
Clouds my vision as it rolls away
Bury me so innocent, tortured by what wasn't said
I'm a victim of my words that were shattered
You can never go back, you can never go backWelcome to our reality
Full of hate and brutality
We all want something to believe
You can never go back
You can never go backWelcome to reality
Welcome to reality
Welcome to reality
You can never go backI'm afflicted by the shadows and voices
Crowds my memory as it fades away
Blinded by the ignorance, never know the difference
I'm a prisoner of the one thing that matters
You can never go back, you can never go backWelcome to our reality
Full of hate and brutality
We all want something to believe
You can never go back
You can never go backWelcome to reality
Welcome to reality
Welcome to reality
You can never go back
You can never go backIt's a matter of fact, this life that I have
Giving, I'd do anything
Just stuck in the past, been going too fastIt's a matter of fact, this normal life that I have
I'd do anything - welcome to reality
It's a part of the past, life is moving too fast
I'd do anything welcome to realityWelcome to our reality
Full of hate and brutality
We all want something to believe
You can never go back
You can never go backWelcome to reality
You can never go back
Welcome to reality
You can never go back
Welcome to reality
You can never go back
You can never go back
