

Ask Myself

Robin Thicke

I gotta ask myself
What's it gon' be, babe
Am I gon' save myself
What's it gon' be? I gotta ask myself
What I'm gon' do, babe
Am I gon' save myself
What's it gon' be? I gotta pop up, pop up
Gotta get up every day
Something for me and my family
I gotta make decisions
And be somebody I'm growing up as fast as I can
I gotta make some money
Don't wanna live by their rules In and out the day
In and out the night
I'ma find my way
Just to survive I gotta ask myself
What's it gon' be, babe
Am I gon' save myself
What's it gon' be? I gotta ask myself
What I'm gon' do, babe
Am I gon' save myself
What's it gon' be? Something beautiful inside of me, oh yeah
Something wonderful inside of me, oh yeah
Something beautiful inside of me, oh yeah
Something wonderful inside of me I gotta pop up, pop up
Gotta live up to the words
Everyone's talking, talking
I gotta be somebody And for my baby
I'm growing up as fast as I can
I gotta make life better for everyone
Everyone, everyone, everyone
Just to survive, babe I gotta ask myself
What's it gon' be, babe
Am I gon' save myself
What's it gon' be? Something beautiful inside of me, oh yeah
Something wonderful inside of me, oh yeah
Something beautiful inside of me, oh yeah
Something wonderful inside of me I gotta ask myself
What's it gon' be, babe

Am I gon' save myself
What's it gon' be? I gotta ask myself
What I'm gon' do, babe
Am I gon' save myself
What's it gon' be? I gotta pop up, pop up
Something for me and my family
And be somebody
