

Where Do I Go from Here

Relient K

Leaving may not be coming home
Needing to know I'm not alone
Even though I can't feel a thing Taking time to get over it
Making the best of what won't quit
Breaking me down I can't feel a thing Where do I go? Where do I stand?
Where can I find myself again?
Where do I go if not disappear
Where do I go from here? Tracing my steps right back to you
Racing the clock to save an hour or two
And facing the fact I don't feel a thing I'm dealing with what I can't control
Feeling confused 'cause I don't know
If healing is when you don't feel a thing Where do I go? Where do I stand?
Where can I find myself again?
Where do I go if not disappear
Where do I go from here? Woah, woah, woah
And I still can't feel a thing
