The Forecast

Ancient artifacts receive a fresh new look 'round here
Tapping into nature, the video store declines
Our cards and our stars are not aligned tonight, tonightTonight, the storm is rolling in
And I can feel the rain beat against the wind
And I don't mind, I don't mind, I want to run and make you mine
While these Midwestern skies are clear tonightPack up the maps, we will drive, we can't fly
Say anything, so my heart beats on time
Pack up the maps, we will drive, we can't fly
Say anything, so my heart beats on time
So my heart beats on time, so my heart
