

White Table

Delta Spirit

Meet me darlin', won't you?
I've been waiting for you
At my lonesome white table
Ready, willing and able Torn in two, beaten and scarred
I'll give you my love but not my heart
Tattered and worn, battered and bruised
I'll give you my love but it won't be true Someday, darlin', maybe
You could be my baby
Until then I'll be waitin'
At my lonesome white table Torn in two, beaten and scarred
I'll give you my love but not my heart
Tattered and worn, battered and bruised
I'll give you my love but it won't be true
