

Wounds of the Past (Moon Mix)

Khors

The old wood remembers the past greatness of ancestors
Ancient barrows - wounds of great battles,
Eternally towering above the ground,
Bringing up to life power and pride. The fiery sun of dusk disappears behind the wood
The frightened birds become silent
Only sculptures of ancient gods stately stand on the hill
As if the memory of the past. Roots of trees grabbing the soul
Reveiling memories of ancient battles
Great victories and terrible deaths. Above the ancient wood a raven is spinning around
Symbol of wisdom and pride.
Ancient monuments of the past
Symbols of eternity and pride
