

Everybody's Girl

Jennifer Lopez

Let's play a game
Let's just pretend like you don't know who I am
Believe it if you say that you're not a fan
Act like I'm interested in some other man, man, man Turn on the lights
So that the cameras flashing won't be so bright
And let the crowd ain't getting big outside
They're wanting details on how I live my life, my life, my life There's no escape from the fame
To somewhere they don't know my name
I love you I do feel your pain
But the question still remain Can you love somebody loved by everybody?
Can you love somebody when they're everybody's girl?
Can you love somebody loved by everybody?
Can you love somebody when they're everybody's girl?
Can you love the girl? Can you love the girl?
Can you love the girl? Can you love the girl?
Can you love the girl? Can you love the girl?
Can you love the girl? Can you love the girl? Out through the back
Too many people blocking the front door
We go our different ways so we want more
Another gig I got in until four, four, four There's no escape from the fame
To somewhere they don't know my name
I love you I do feel your pain
But the question still remain Can you love somebody loved by everybody?
Can you love somebody when they're everybody's girl?
Can you love somebody loved by everybody?
Can you love somebody when they're everybody's girl?
Can you love the girl? Can you love the girl?
Can you love the girl? Can you love the girl?
Can you love the girl? Can you love the girl?
Can you love the girl? Can you love the girl? Can you hang on to a shooting star
Handle distance near and far
Don't let the jealousy and envy get to you
'Cause I'll be running home right back to you Can you love somebody loved by everybody?
Can you love somebody when they're everybody's girl?
Can you love somebody loved by everybody?
Can you love somebody when they're everybody's girl?
Can you love the girl? Can you love the girl?
Can you love the girl? Can you love the girl?
Can you love the girl? Can you love the girl?

Can you love the girl? Can you love the girl? Can you love the girl? Can you love the girl?
