Thank You

Bomshel

Angry, I could be
Could curse you and hate you, that would be easy
'Cause I'm broken and holdin'
These shattered pieces believingThat all that's left of me is what you left of meI'm standing up as a fighter, walking away a survivor
Ain't looking back
Here on my own, I am happy
You're leaving me only taught me who I am
So thank youThe first night was the worst night
You had me thinking without you that I'd die
But you know what, the sun came up
And thanks to you I finally had to wake upAnd now the truth is I can do this'Cause I'm standing up as a fighter, walking away a survivor
Ain't looking back
And here on my own I am happy
You're leaving me only taught me who I am
So thank you'Cause I'm standing up as a fighter, walking away a survivor
Ain't looking back, no
Here on my own I am happy
You're leaving me only taught me who I am
So thank you, so thank you
