

Bittersweet Sundown

Framing Hanley

I've scribbled out my view on faith
And waiting till timings right
I've sat and pondered and missed for days and days
And nights and nights and nights I've never been the best with lines
I've got 17 pantomimes
That give away the words I say
And nothing that you should believe And all we are is a bittersweet sundown
A little bit love and a little bit letdown
I can't keep you around, I can't keep you around
In this bittersweet sundown I've had a lot of time to think
About where this all went south
I wanted you less and less until noon and dawn
And night, we're all sold out You can tell me we'll be just fine
Quentin says you got 20 pantomimes
That give away my first mistake
Of not convincing you to believe That all we are is a bittersweet sundown
A little bit love and a little bit letdown
I can't keep you around, I can't keep you around
In this bittersweet sundown Trust me when I say
You would make all the same mistake
Every promise would be made afraid
You would make all the same mistake
You admit you could get away, I let you get away And all we are is a bittersweet sundown
You gave me every bit of your heart
And I'm the one that let you down
I can't keep you around, I can't keep you around
In this bittersweet sundown When the bittersweet sundown
When the bittersweet memory now
