

We Are Mountains

Darren Martus

We are rocks, we are floods
We are bone and we are blood
We are rain and we are rivers
We are hearts and we are hands We are rocks, we are trees
We are bound and we are free
We are dead and we are risen
We are mountains
We are mountains We are lost, we are home
We're together, we're alone
We are reaching for the heavens
We are standing in the clouds We are thought, we are mind
We are much too big to find
We are made of what we're made of
We are mountains
We are mountains
