Born In A Mourning Hall

Blind Guardian

In fact it was close to a real fallout
Everything's under control
The speaker said with a serious smile
Behind his mask, he knew the truth"I'll bring a new age of better ways"
The TV preacher said
Just pay today
Pay todayWorld's dressed in black
On earth's judgment day and I [unverified]
I know it can't go on, forbidden signs increase
I'm sitting still at home and watchingBorn in a mourning hall
Pale clouds feared the unborn child
Then it grew up with growing plans of suicideBorn in a mourning hall
Shadows left the fear inside
That Peter Pan will never reach the other sideIt's frightening
Exciting to sit at home
And watch the burning fields
Get hypnotized by the TV snakeObey and work hard and feel no anger
Just sympathy for the higher class
There's no chance in changing things
'Cause I amBorn in a mourning hall
Silent cries ran out when the cradle breaks
Broken dreams were unheard on the other sideBorn in a mourning hall
Shadows left the fear in the new born's mind
That Peter Pan will never reach the other sideAnd I'm a part of the machine
A puppet on the strings
A rebel, once, now I'm an old manOh, I know this can't go on
But the ghost called fear inside
Lames my tongue, my nerves, my mind
Eternal fall downSomeone cut the strings off
I can't move to get back courage
I've to face the truth but not today
GoodbyeBorn in a mourning hall
Caught inside a web called life
The only way to get out soon is suicideBorn in a mourning hall
Pale souls built a frozen world
Infected brains will never reach the other side
The other side
