The Hate In Me

Godhead

You've got to wake up, no time to make up
The life you wasted and everything you broke apart
Don't disregard me, or this emergency
You are the one that started this atrocityI've got a feeling inside that you've got something to hide
And that's what I'm waiting for
There's no apology for your hypocrisy
I'm coming down on you with all of my ferocityI feel the hate in me awakening
I hide my face to stop my sufferingI feel the hatred, from every word you said
Consume until I'm driven to my death bed
Now you're inside of me, you'll never let me be
I see the terror of all your inhumanityI feel the hate in me awakening
I hide my face to stop my suffering
I can't believe the fear and doubt you bring
You made me what I am it's sickeningI feel the hate in me awakening
I hide my face to stop my suffering
I can't believe the fear and doubt you bring
You made me what I am it's sickening
