

Soaked

Adam Lambert

Soaked to the bone
Sink like a stone
Walk home alone
It's not the first time
It's not the worst crime
Your soul will be OK And you've had enough
Searching for love
And you miss the touch
Of someone new Burned by your dreams
It's never how it seems
Cold crushed esteem
Take shelter
And hide forever
Your soul will be OK And you've had enough
Searching for love
And you miss the touch
Of someone new And you've had enough
Searching for love
And you miss the touch
Of someone new Soaked to the bone
Sink like a stone
I will take you home
It's not the first time
It's not the worst crime
Our souls will be OK
