Soaked

Adam Lambert

Soaked to the bone Sink like a stone Walk home alone It's not the first time It's not the worst crime Your soul will be OKAnd you've had enough Searching for love And you miss the touch Of someone newBurned by your dreams It's never how it seems Cold crushed esteem Take shelter And hide forever Your soul will be OKAnd you've had enough Searching for love And you miss the touch Of someone newAnd you've had enough Searching for love And you miss the touch Of someone newSoaked to the bone Sink like a stone I will take you home It's not the first time It's not the worst crime Our souls will be OK
