Treat You Right

Honne

Can you forget what I've been sayin' lately?
It was out of character
And I hope that you will not go on to hate me
Can we go back to how we were?I'm fragile at heart
And I find it hard
To express myself when you're around
You're a good girl and you're smart
Yeah you're goin' far
You don't ever need to put yourself downOh all I
All I wanna do is treat you right
Oh all I
All I wanna do is treat you right
Can we forget how I've been actin' lately?
It was not in my nature
And I hope that you will always want the same as me
To go back to how we areYou're fragile at heart
And you find it hard
To accept yourself when I'm around
You're a clever girl and you're smart
Yeah you're goin' far
You don't ever need to put yourself downAll I
All I wanna do is treat you right
Oh, all I
All I wanna do is treat you right
Oh, all I
All I wanna do is treat you right
Oh and as long as I'm here
There'll be nothin' to fear
You can be assured I'll treat you rightOh all I
All I wanna do is treat you right
Oh all I
All I wanna do is treat you right
Oh all I
All I wanna do is treat you rightOh and as long as I'm here
There'll be nothin' to fear
You can be assured I'll treat you right
