

Breath

Soley

Breath

Above my own grave I hold my breath too long we leave our lifes behind when we fall down

It's time to move on into the mountain

I hear my eyes and my fingers will light you up Did you see me hiding in the past
Do you see me holding my breath

I want to dance by your side after we fall can I paint your happy smile before you wake up it's time to move on into the fire hold your breath before you fall asleep and burn down Can I light you on fire
