Days of the New

Taken by surprise by the size of my brain
Knowing all the time all the lies all the games
Thinking up a storm when it storms it's going to rain
Taking what's mine all the time, all the time Take some for yourself
 It's all good for something
 And when there's no more to give
 The window will shine in the light
On what's left for me Knowin' your mind, knowin' your mind
 That you've got to remember
 You've got to remember, your name
 Knowin' your mind, knowin' your mind
 That you've got to remember
That you've got to remember, your name Staggering around, can't find a place to sit down
 Nothing suits my ass
 Toast to some champagne of pain
I know you can bring us all a bottle Remember the time when time was a friend
 And you could make him lend you a hand
 Now there's a place where taking takes place
 And time just gets in your way Take some for yourself
 It's all good for something
 And when there's no more to give
 The window will shine in the light
On what's left for me Knowin' your mind, knowin' your mind
 That you've got to remember
 That you've got to remember, your name
 Knowin' your mind, knowin' your mind
 That you've got to remember
You've got to remember, your name Knowin' your mind, knowin' your mind
 That you've got to remember
 You've got to remember, your name
 Knowin' your mind, knowin' your mind
 That you've got to remember
You've got to remember, your name Yeah, take some for yourself
 It's all good for something
 And when there's no more to give
 The window will shine in the light Take some for yourself
 It's all good for something
 And when there's no more to give
 The window will shine in the light

On what's left for me
