All Behind Me Now

Mark Erelli

(Mark Erelli)Well, you know I used to be alone
Never ever needed anyone
I couldn't say what I was running from
Man, I was constantly blueDown every boulevard and backroad
Wasn't anyplace I didn't go
Searching for something but I didn't know
I was looking for youCHORUS
There's a price you pay
When you hide your love away
But I won't be afraid this time around
I'm gonna keep my feet on the ground
Lay it all on the line
Those days are all behind me nowI never let myself believe in love
I used to think it couldn't be enough
Now I forget what I was thinking of
When she walks in the room'Cause she can love me like a hurricane
Or a cool breeze on a summer day
When all the clouds just roll away
To let the sun shine through(CHORUS)I've seen more than my fair share
Of broken hearts my friend
But my worst day now
Is better than the best I knew back then
