Better Off This Way

Before You Exit

Sittin' where we once sat, knowin' that I'm stronger now
Turnin' up the radio, crankin' up the stereo loud
And I'll always feel better than the time, we went out

It's not a game, You're driving me insane to, the point where my heart breaks, for you
I call your name, and then I come to find you, To see that we are over, it's true
I know, I know that we're better off this way
I know, I know that we'll never be the same

Sittin' where we once sat, knowin' that I'm stronger now
Turnin' up the radio, crankin' up the stereo loud
And I'll always feel better than the time, we went out

Stayed away. Rejected every phone call, Hid from every doorbell, you rang
I'm better off, without you right here with me, assisting every move that I make
I know, I know that we're better off this way
I know, I know that we'll never be the same

There's still a place in my heart that seems to be missin'
When we went out you always seemed to fill it
Maybe I want you back, in my life

There's still a place in my heart that seems to be missin'
When we went out you always seemed to fill it
Maybe I want you back, in my life

Sittin' where we once sat, knowin' that I'm stronger now
Turnin' up the radio, crankin' up the stereo loud

Sittin' where we once sat, knowin' that I'm stronger now
Turnin' up the radio, crankin' up the stereo loud

Sittin' where we once sat, knowin' that I'm stronger now
Turnin' up the radio, crankin' up the stereo loud

And I'll never feel better than the time, we went out

And I'll never feel better than the time, we went out
