

What I've Become

Crashing Jericho

The beauty of what Ive become Falls short of nothing less than your love Sometimes I feel like Ive been used But your hand always guides me through I wanna feel like, I wanna feel like weve started I wanna show you that weve never parted I see the one who took my pain and replaced all the mistakes Ive made Can you come quickly to see me progress and ignite fire and nothing less
