

Taking Chances

B.G. Baarregaard

Don't know much about your life
Don't know much about your world
But don't want to be alone tonight
    On this planet they call Earth
    You don't know about my past
And I don't have a future figured out
    And maybe this is going too fast
    And maybe it's not meant to last
    But what do you say to taking chances?
    What do you say to jumping off the edge?
Never knowing if there's solid ground below
    Or hand to hold, or hell to pay
    What do you say, what do you say?
    I just want to start again
Maybe you could show me how to try
    Maybe you could take me in
    Somewhere underneath your skin
    What do you say to taking chances?

    What do you say to jumping off the edge?
Never knowing if there's solid ground below
    Or hand to hold, or hell to pay
    What do you say, what do you say?
    And I had my heart beating down
    But I always come back for more, yeah
    There's nothing like love to pull you up
    When you're lying down on the floor there
    So talk to me, talk to me like lovers do
Yeah walk with me, walk with me like lovers do, like lovers do
    What do you say to taking chances?
    What do you say to jumping off the edge?
Never knowing if there's solid ground below
    Or hand to hold, or hell to pay
    What do you say, what do you say?
    Don't know much about your life
    Don't know much about your world
