It's Only Love

Tina Turner

When the feelin' is ended
There ain't no use pretendin'
Don't you worry, well it's only loveIf your world has been shattered
There ain't nothing else matters
It ain't over, and it's only love
That's all, yeahIf your heart has been broken
Hard words have been spoken
It ain't over, but it's only loveAnd if your life ain't worth livin'
And you're ready to give in
Just remember baby, that it's only love
Yeah, that's allIt's always baby, only love
Yeah, love
It's only love, it's only loveYou can live without the aggravation
You gotta wanna win, you gotta wanna win
You keep lookin' back in desperation
Over and over and over againYeah, yeah, it's only love baby
It's only love, baby
Yeah, it's only loveWhen your world has been shattered
Then ain't nothing else matters
No it ain't over, and it's only loveAnd your life ain't worth livin'
And you're ready to give in
Just remember, that it's only loveIt's only love, and that's all
