Leaving Today

The Coral

I'm leaving today
Too much time's already wasted
I know I can't stay
So I've made my reservationsI'm closing the door
To this old empty house of sorrows
They're only sorrows until tomorrow
I'm leaving today, I'm leaving todayThings I'll never know
All the words I wanted to say
Ghost at the window
And things will never be the sameI'm closing the door
To this old empty house of sorrows
They're only sorrows until tomorrow
I'm leaving today, I'm leaving todayI'm rolling my bones
Right out of this lonely place
I'll never go home
It's not my home anywayI'm closing the door
To this old empty house of sorrows
They're only sorrows until tomorrow
I'm leaving today, I'm leaving today
I'm leaving today, I'm leaving today
