

Meet Me Here Later (Reprise)

Astronautalis

Baptized in soft skin with bitten lips I passed by her lost in the sketchy land Lines of breadcrumbs retrace for the ride Bathed in the blue light of perfect American nights American nights
Funny right lovely night song sets pace Young lovers sing along through touch face True love waits in shallow waters under darkened skies Little handcuffs and the solid plans and blacked out eyes we're killing cowboys left and right again with guilty little trips, recycled cans that give me whiskey lips and dirty hands and everybody's got a ribbon all of a sudden and it's a box newsstand alright sorry damn she based all her plans lets call those supermodels and all of their fucking vagrant bands and ask them just exactly what they've got planned to save us from our own impending doom hey word, baptized, soft skin, bitten smiles, bitten smiles all lost in oh god how you glow, oh god how you glow meet me here later and we'll make out hey word, broke bones, paint chips
bitten smiles, bitten smiles and soft hits oh lord how you shine, oh how you shine meet me here later and we'll make out "you ready?"
"yeah I'm ready"
"OK, then let's go" 1... 2... 3... "last one held in the mouth held down third street doing donuts through front lawns keg in the backseat go home makeout and bleed Mr. mouthful he opens pockets it's just a buck when nothing costs me
nothing costs me
nothing costs me
nothing costs me assholes all obsessed with spelling chasing up and down the ceiling fuck you bleeding heart take another 20 all we need here is to burn some money check, swore I'd laugh at anything hey word, baptized, with bitten smiles, bitten smiles all lost in oh god how you glow oh god how you glow meet me here later and we'll make-out hey word, broke bones and paint chips
bitten smiles, bitten smiles and soft hits oh lord how you shine ooh lord how you shine meet me here later and we'll make-out hey word, baptized, soft skin, bitten smiles, bitten smiles all lost in oh god how you glow, oh god how you glow meet me here later and we'll make-out
