

The End Complete Iv: The Road And The Damned

Coheed And Cambria

I believe in the world right in front of me
But now along these empty streets
Where this curse holds these memories of a man
You know he's lost
No time to think about it
No room to breathe
If I had a way back
I'd ride through the dark and the door
But please don't wait for me
Because the man you love don't live anymore
I can't go home again
Tonight you'll sleep
You'll feel what might become of me, my dear
Within these end old days where this longing turns
This man to pray and a love begins to die
No time to live in the deep
Girl, I'm worth the second chance, what have I done?
No time to think about it
No room to breathe
If I had a way back
I'd ride through the dark and the door
But please don't wait
Because the man you love don't live anymore
I can't go home again
I believed in the world once in front of me
Well, now that's gone
If I had the way back
I'd ride through the dark and the door
But please don't wait for me
Because the man you love don't live anymore
I can't go home again
If I had the way back
I'd ride through the dark and the door
But please don't wait for me
Because the man you love don't live anymore
I can't go home again
Bye, goodbye, bye, goodbye
Bye, goodbye, bye
Bye, goodbye, bye, goodbye

Bye, my dear

Lyrics provided by
<https://damnyrics.com/>